Looking for another way to fast-track your learning this spring?

Red River College offers Intersession from April 30 to June 22, 2018, to help full-time, part-time and future students achieve their career-related educational goals. Intersession is a great opportunity to lighten next year's study load, take a course over, or get a jump on your studies as a new student. It provides another option to access credit courses from Monday to Friday. And in many cases, you can earn credit towards more than one program – in just seven weeks or less.
