

LEARN WITH INTEGRITY

You can do this by:

Completing your assignments, tests, and exams honestly to reflect your own knowledge and skills

Trusting that guidelines exist to create a more ethical environment for all

Respectfully declining a peer who asks to see your work and respecting yourself enough to not help someone else cheat

Telling the truth about why you missed class or an exam, or turned an assignment in late

Taking responsibility for your own learning

Being fair by acting according to standards and expectations

Having the courage to accept a lower grade than you had aimed for
