The Future of Work: A 1 Degree shift (February 10)

While many think that the future of work is about space and place, the truth is that the future of work is about rethinking how we live our lives and connect with people. The problem? We don't really like the idea of change. In this fun and engaging presentation, hear from author, speaker, and entrepreneur Eric Termeunde as he shares the one-degree shifts we can all make to reduce friction explore entrepreneurship, develop our leadership skills, and build a more intentional future.

Attendees will learn:

- The difference between forced and chosen entrepreneurship
- Keys to creating a more intentional future
- Three questions to begin a refinement process
- What cilantro can teach us about culture
- Why a universal 'best' place to work doesn't exist and how to create our own great place to work

Join us and Eric Termeunde, a globally-recognized thought leader, author, and keynote speaker on building tomorrow's greatest places to work. As co-founder of NoW of Work, Eric advises industry-leading organizations, institutions, and associations on future-proofing their teams, talent management, and rehumanizing the workplace. His best-selling book, Rethink Work, has become a must-read for today's leaders and is available wherever you buy your books. Recognized as one of the Top 100 Emerging Innovators under 35 by American Express, his ideas have been featured in Forbes, Thrive Global, The Huffington Post, The Globe and Mail, and more.

Please RSVP if you wish to attend this webinar. The Zoom link will be sent 1 day prior to the event.

Building a Social Enterprise (May 5)

If you are a person with a passion to make a difference and creating positive change, there are an abundant amount of businesses you can launch. Building a social enterprise allows you to manage a for-profit (or not-for profit) organization that supports social change and makes a difference in the world. Today, a social entrepreneur means so much more than just starting a business that has a positive environmental impact. In this webinar we will talk about social entrepreneurship and how to be a changemaker by building a business that positively impacts the world, beyond just a focus on a triple bottom line.

Please RSVP if you wish to attend this webinar. The Zoom link will be sent 1 day prior to the event.
